

Grand Blanc Bride—Miss Clarabelle Burren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burren of the Hill road, and a graduate of the Grand Blanc High school, was married Saturday to Myron E. Sheldon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Sheldon of the Jennings road at a ceremony performed at the Sheldon home by Rev. Floyd Sullivan, pastor of the Bristol Methodist church. Mr. Sheldon was graduated from the Mary Crapo High school in Swartz Creek.

Sheldon-Burren

Grand Blanc—In the presence of relatives and friends the vows were spoken that united in marriage Miss Clarabelle Burren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burren of the Hill road, and Myron E. Sheldon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Sheldon of the Jennings road at 8 p. m., Saturday. The services were read by the Rev. Floyd Sullivan, pastor of the Bristol Methodist Episcopal church.

The living room of the Sheldon home where the wedding took place was beautifully decorated with palms, baskets of flowers, and cathedral candles. As Mrs. Neida Campbell Leslie sang "I Love You Truly" the bridal party took its place. The bride wore a gown of royal blue satin, blue slippers, a corsage of red roses and a yellow gold locket and chain, a gift of the groom. The bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Sheldon, sister of the groom, wore a gown of mustard colored crepe with a corsage of rosebuds and bebe mums.

Two little neices, Polly Massey and Nancy Ann Burren, wearing blue taffeta dresses were ribbon girls while Priscilla Massey strewed rose petals in the path of the bride. The wedding ring embedded in the heart of a pink rose was borne to the altar by little Nancy Sheldon. Melvin Sheldon, a brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The bride was graduated from the Grand Blanc High school with the class of 1937. Mr. Sheldon attended the Mary Crapo High school in Swartz Creek.
